

KODIAK

October 5-8, 2010

Next Stop: KODIAK

 2010 fall conference in Kodiak October 5th thru 8th

 Many people are looking forward to coming to KODIAK.

 Start planning now and bring a friend.

 Kodiak is off the beaten path, but well worth the trip!

Port of Kodiak

-  Kodiak Island is about 220 miles SW of Anchorage
-  One of the largest commercial fishing ports in United States
-  Unique because of the large vessel fleet and moorage facilities
-  Home to many of the Deadliest Catch fleet
-  Featuring a new 660 ton travelift & boatyard

Getting to Kodiak

By air: Alaska Airlines (best way)

By Sea: Alaska Marine Highway System

By Land: Alcan highway to Homer, then AMHS to Kodiak

Where to stay: Kodiak Best Western inn & conference center

What to DO

 Sight seeing, Bear viewing, Whale watching

 Fishing, Hunting

 Hiking

 Golf

 Native culture, WW2 history

 And much more....

What to Bring

-  Prepare for the weather, it can be snowing sideways or clear and crisp.
-  Warm cloths, rain gear, dress in layers
-  Camera, fishing gear etc...
-  Most importantly bring yourselves and be ready for an adventure!

Info Sources

 www.kodiak.org

 www.city.kodiak.ak.us

 Lon White

 Email: lwhite@city.kodiak.ak.us

 ACQ@alaska.com

 Cell: (907)645-8100

 Office: (907)486-8080

See you in KODIAK!